Health Care District Participates in Event for the County's Homeless

The Health Care District of Palm Beach County was proud to participate in the Homeless Coalition of Palm Beach County's "Paving the Way Home" event. The Health Care District's C. L. Brumback Primary Care Clinics care for the homeless through a partnership with the county's Senator Philip D. Lewis Center and also provide medical and behavioral health services to the chronically homeless on the District's new, technologically advanced Mobile Health Clinic.
